What is it?

An exchange program that connects international students and scholars with local hosts to share a Thanksgiving meal together while having meaningful conversations -- no overnight commitment required.

How it Works

Guests and hosts apply, selecting available Fall Break days.

After the deadline, UCSD will match participants and notify them.

Hosts coordinate plans with their guests, who are expected to confirm and attend the activity.

Fall Break Guide: Thanksgiving Traditions

Thanksgiving Meal

A bountiful feast is the centerpiece to Thanksgiving. Common dishes include turkey, mashed potatoes, gravy, stuffing, and pumpkin pie. The meal is often shared with family or close friends.

Friendsgiving

Alternatively, you can have your own "Friendsgiving" - a Thanksgiving-inspired feast with your closest friends. Often a potluck style, guests can bring their own dish to share.

Thanksgiving Parade

Tune in to Macy's 98th Annual Thanksgiving Day Parade on NBC on November 28th, 2024. The parade consists of celebrity appearances, festive floats, and musical performances.

Football

Football games are an essential part to Thanksgiving for many American families. Some play football with their families in the backyard, while others watch NFL games on Thanksgiving Day.

Black Friday Shopping

Black Friday is an annual shopping event that takes place the day after Thanksgiving. Many stores offer large promotions and discounts - both in-store and online. It is a great way to get ahead on holiday shopping.
