The F-1 or J-1 Visa

A visa is a legal document that grants you permission to seek entry to a particular country for a specific reason (for example, study or tourism). All international students, except for citizens of Canada and Bermuda, must have a valid F-1 Form I-20 or Form DS-2019 in addition to a valid F-1 or J-1 visa to seek entry to the U.S.

For students who have successfully received a UC San Diego Form I-20 or DS-2019 and are in need of a valid F-1 or J-1 visa stamp to enter the United States, follow steps below to understand the steps needed to apply and interview for your visa at a U.S. embassy or consulate outside of the U.S. Note, a U.S. Visa cannot be obtained within the U.S.

A list of all U.S. embassies/consulates by country can be found at <https://www.usembassy.gov/>.

Pay the SEVIS Fee:

After receiving your Form I-20 (F-1) or DS-2019 (J-1), you must pay the SEVIS I-901 fee. This fee is required of every international student issued a new Initial Form I-20 or DS-2019, which has a new SEVIS ID number. After you pay the SEVIS I-901 fee, you will see a confirmation page. Save a PDF copy of this confirmation page for your own records; you will be required to bring it to your visa interview.

SEVIS Transfer Students: Students transferring their SEVIS record to UC San Diego are NOT required to pay the SEVIS I-901 fee again, since the SEVIS Transfer process allows them to keep their SEVIS ID number the same.

Submit the DS-160 and Schedule your Visa Interview:

After receiving your Form I-20 or DS-2019 and paying the SEVIS I-901 fee, complete the DS-160 Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application form. In order to fill out this form, you will need your Form I-20 or DS-2019, which shows your SEVIS ID number:

- F-1 students: Your SEVIS ID number starts with an "N" and is located in the top LEFT corner of your Form I-20
- J-1 students: Your SEVIS ID number starts with an "N" and is located in the top RIGHT corner of your Form DS-2019. As part of your DS-160 application, you will also need to provide UCSD's J-1 Program Number, which is: P-1-02849

When the DS-160 asks you for UC San Diego's contact information, you may use the following:

Submit the DS-160: Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application

- Prepare required documents/information ahead of time per the instructions on the embassy/consulate's website
- Have your passport and Form I-20 or DS-2019 with you
- Takes approximately 1-2 hours to complete if prepared beforehand

The screenshot shows the U.S. Department of State Consular Electronic Application Center website. At the top, there is a header with the U.S. Department of State logo and the text "U.S. DEPARTMENT of STATE CONSULAR ELECTRONIC APPLICATION CENTER". A language selection dropdown is set to "ENGLISH". The main heading is "Online Nonimmigrant Visa Application (DS-160)". Below this, there is a "FAQs" button. A tooltip message states: "Tooltip Language: English [View Tool Tip Help] Most of this application has been translated. To see the translation point your mouse over any sentence on the page." The page is divided into two columns. The left column has a "Welcome!" section with instructions: "The first step in applying for a U.S. nonimmigrant visa is to complete your application. It takes approximately 90 minutes to do this. After you submit your application, you can move on to the next steps such as scheduling your interview." Below this is an "Important: Before You Start" section with a numbered list: 1. Learn about Types of Visas. 2. This website is designed to be accessed using Chrome, Edge, or Firefox only. 3. Gather your documents. 4. Review the instructions and FAQ. A "Notes:" section follows, stating: "Other people can assist you with your visa application. Note that under U.S. law (22 C.F.R. 41.103) you must electronically sign and submit your own application unless you qualify for an exemption. Even if someone else helped you complete the application, you (the applicant) must click the 'Sign Application' button, or your application may not be accepted." The right column has a "Get Started" section with a location selection dropdown (currently showing "- SELECT ONE -"), a CAPTCHA image with the code "PEM33", and two buttons: "START AN APPLICATION" and "RETRIEVE AN APPLICATION". A note below the buttons says: "You will be asked for your application ID and answer a security question." At the bottom, there is an "Additional Information" section with two bullet points: "» Write down the Application ID displayed on the top right hand corner of the page. If you close your browser window, you will need your ID to access your application again." and "» Save your application frequently. The system will time out after..."

Expedited Visa Interview Appointments:

- If your visa interview is scheduled for after your program start date, an expedited interview appointments may be available
  - Follow the instructions for the Embassy or Consulate you are applying with
- ISEO cannot advocate on your behalf. A letter from ISEO is not needed. Your program start date is listed on your I-20 or DS-2019!

Qualifications for an Expedited Interview Appointment

Consular sections overseas may be able to expedite your interview date if there is an urgent, unforeseen situation such as a funeral, medical emergency, or school start date. The process to request an expedited nonimmigrant visa interview varies by location. You should refer to the instructions on the website of the Embassy or Consulate Visa Section where you will interview, or on their online appointment scheduling site. You will need to provide proof of the need for an earlier appointment.

In all cases: You must first submit the online visa application form (DS-160), pay the application fee, and schedule the first available interview appointment. Only at this point will a consular section consider your request for an expedited appointment.

Note: Travel for the purpose of attending weddings and graduation ceremonies, assisting pregnant relatives, participating in an annual business/academic/professional conference, or enjoying last-minute tourism does not qualify for expedited appointments. For such travel, please schedule a regular visa appointment well in advance.

What to Expect

Before the Visa Officer even begins the interview, they have already checked:

- ✓ Your application history (including green card petitions previously filed in your name)
- ✓ Your previous refusals (if any)
- ✓ Your DS-160 responses
- ✓ Whether you have family members in the United States
- ✓ Your body language (yes, they analyze this fast)
- ✓ Complications in your situation (assume your officer knows about that arrest, that run-in with customs, or that school you stopped attending)

What to Expect

Additional things to consider

- The visa interview goes quickly
- Be brief and maintain a positive attitude
- Be ready to talk: the consular officer expects to have a (short) conversation with you
- Be prepared to answer all questions in English
- Know this information flawlessly:
  - Your program of study and its connection to long-term career or life goals
  - Your source(s) of funding
  - Your ties to your home country
- Online presence: Visa Officers can inquire about online activity, including but not limited to, social media. Please be mindful of your digital presence to ensure it is compliant with all visa and immigration regulations.

10 Points to Remember When Applying for a Student Visa

📅 July 24, 2019

Topics: International Student and Scholar Services, Regulatory Information

Competencies: Compliance Management

Updated July 2019 by members of the NAFSA International Student and Scholar Regulatory Practice (ISS RP) Travel Subcommittee.

1. Ties to Your Home Country and Residence Abroad

Under U.S. law, people who apply for nonimmigrant visas, such as F-1 or J-1 student visas, are viewed as "intending immigrants" (who want to live permanently in the U.S.) until they can convince the consular officer that they are not. You must, therefore, be able to show that you have reasons for returning to your "residence abroad" (usually in your home country) that are stronger than reasons for remaining in the United States, and that you intend to depart the United States at the conclusion of your studies.

"Ties" to your home country are the things that connect you to your hometown, homeland, or current place of residence: job, family, owning a house or apartment, financial prospects that you own or will inherit, investments, etc. If you are a prospective student, the interviewing officer may ask about your specific plans or promise of future employment, family or other relationships, educational objectives, grades, long-range plans and career prospects in your home country. Each person's situation is different, of course, and there is no magic explanation or single document, certificate, or letter which can guarantee visa issuance. If you have applied for the U.S. Diversity (green card) Lottery, you may be asked if you intend to immigrate. If you applied for the Diversity Visa Lottery but do not intend to immigrate, be prepared to clarify that, for instance, by explaining that

Common first questions include variations of: "Why are you traveling to the U.S.?" or "Where are you planning to study in the U.S.?"

What the Visa Officer wants to hear in your response:

- ✓ Confidence → Clear, direct answers show you have nothing to hide.
- ✓ Clarity → Details to support your answers, not just more words to fill up time.
- ✓ Credibility → Your answers match your documents, your situation, and your intent.

What the Visa Officer doesn't want to hear in your response:

- ▶ Hesitation → "Uh... um... well, I think..."
- ▶ Too little detail → Makes them think you're covering something up.
- ▶ Overreliance on documents → Think human-to-human communication as documents have already been reviewed!

Visa Delays: Administrative Processing

What to Expect

- Administrative Processing (AP) occurs when a visa officer needs more time or information before making a decision on your visa application.
- Processing times vary and cannot be expedited.
  - ISEO has no authority to influence if your application is placed in AP
- Your 221(g) notice may list additional documents or instructions.

What You Should Do

- Submit the Visa Event Reporting Form (iServices)
- Provide Requested Documents
- Notify Your College/Department
- Check Your Case Online (CEAC portal)
- Plan Travel Carefully
- Request Updated I-20/DS-2019 if needed.

Visa Delays & Denials

2026 Social Media Requirements

- Special security clearance procedure lasting up to 60 days or more
- 221(g) letter indicating visa has been "refused"
- You may be required to submit additional documentation to consulate

DENIAL

- Rare, but does happen
- In most cases, applicants can reapply
